

AN ACT

ENTITLED, An Act to increase the number of days a notice of intent to revoke a driver's license may function as a temporary driver's license following an arrest involving a refusal to submit to chemical analysis.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA:

Section 1. That § 32-23-19 be amended to read as follows:

32-23-19. A law enforcement officer shall serve the notice of intent to revoke, on behalf of the Department of Commerce and Regulation and shall take possession of any driver's license issued by this state held by the person if the arrested driver refuses to submit to a chemical analysis as directed by the officer pursuant to § 32-23-10. A copy of the completed notice of intent to revoke form, and any South Dakota driver's license taken into possession shall be forwarded to the department by the officer. If a valid South Dakota driver's license is surrendered, the notice of intent to revoke shall function as a temporary license which is valid for one hundred twenty days. Upon receipt of a petition for a hearing, the department may extend the temporary license thirty days following the scheduled date of the hearing.

An Act to increase the number of days a notice of intent to revoke a driver's license may function as a temporary driver's license following an arrest involving a refusal to submit to chemical analysis.
